Children's Church

Children may leave after the Children's message to go to Children's Church.

Grades K-5th in Classroom 2 and preschool age in the Nursery. They will watch a short video, hear the Bible story, discuss/answer questions about the video and story, and complete an activity. The class will be finished around 10:15 and the children will return to worship for Communion.

Lutheranism 101 Class

Continues today, August 25 and will end next Sunday, Sept. 1.

The adult education class, Holy Spirit Working Today, will resume meeting on Sunday mornings beginning September 8. The next theme will be "Responding to God's Grace." All adults are welcome, join us in room 1 after worship.

Did you Know?

The church property and building belong only to the Congregation of St. Paul Lutheran and not the ELCA or Florida/ Bahamas Synod. The mortgage is with Thrivent Financial and is not connected with the Synod or tied into the ELCA.

Mission Statement: "Living together in God's Grace, we worship, learn and reach out as a caring community to rejoice in and share the love of Jesus Christ."
